Managing Your Managers

As business owners, executives, and supervisors are all aware, managing employees is one of the hardest parts of running a business. You must balance their strengths and weaknesses, their personalities, and their skill sets, all while trying to earn and maintain their loyalty. And then, like a marching band conductor, you must bring them all together so they're working in unison for the success of your organization—each member playing the right note, at the right time, from the right location on the field.

Security Updates

In order for us to better serve you, please take a moment to review and update your company administrative contacts. As a reminder, if someone is not listed as a contact, we are unable to assist them regarding your account. Additionally, there may be some employees still listed as contacts who have left your company. Changing an employee's status from active to terminated does not update the contact fields. These employees need to be removed manually from the contact list.

In order to make either of these changes, please send your request to:

customerservice@dominionpayroll.com. The email is necessary for security and audit purposes.

Inside DPS

Avintus Employer Services of Nashville is merging its operations with Dominion Payroll Services (DPS) Tennessee. The combined company will operate as Dominion Payroll Services Tennessee and be based out of Nashville with offices in Jackson, MS.

"This merger with DPS fits our strategy of offering the premier workforce management tools delivered with the care of a local service provider", states Jason Poling CEO of the combined venture. "It is an opportunity for us deliver unrivaled service and support to our clients moving forward."
